

one clean island

key west

Ven (2)
02-14-20
ff

Mission Statement

One Clean Island is a Key West based initiative whose purpose is to act as a conduit of factual best practices in regards to protecting our residents and others in responding to the challenges of COVID-19 (Coronavirus)

Who Is One Clean Island

One Clean Island is a group of Key West medical professional(s), community leaders, media affiliates, business leaders and government agency partners.

What One Clean Island IS NOT

- * An Official Government Agency.
- * A group that engages, has opinions of and or promotes business activity.
- * An entity that debates tourism (either pro or con)
- * A fundraising or business entity.

Goals and Objectives

*Provide to the public factual information. This information can include:

- A.) Medical updates (Provided by DR. Norris)
- B.) Best practices as specified by the CDC e.g. cleaning, sanitizing procedures.
- C.) Updates as to available supplies and or equipment.
- D.) Updates to Government Assistance/Programs.
- E.) Opportunities for entities to participate in "One Clean Island Good Practices*".

“One Clean Island Good Practices”

*Entities can voluntarily choose and be recognized for participating in “One Clean Island Good Practices” These practices will be follow CDC guidelines

Details (Draft)

A.)Participant will maintain clean and sanitized surfaces (sanitize minimum every 20 minutes.

B.)Entities will have employees “self -health check” prior to each work shift. This will include temperature reading and general health observation.

C.) Entities will self-report weekly.

D.)Entities may participate in organized community sanitation event(s) e.g. outside sanitation event(s)

Upcoming

- *Facebook page. Launching 03/14/20
- *Press article(s) Mandy Bolen, Pru Sowers.
- *Best practices outline (posting to the FB Page 03/14/2020
- *List of entities subscribing to best practices 03/18/2020
- *City Of Key West Meeting Tentative Date Wednesday March 18th Mayor Terry Johnston (not a public meeting) Details (TBD)

How is information from One Clean Island Disseminated?

- *Facebook page. One (or two) administrator(s) sworn to follow mission statement.
- *Press releases.
- *One media spokesperson or coordinator. (TBD)

-END-

Jim Gilleran

(305) 304-2400

www.jamesgilleran@gmail.com

“Let’s Not Bury Our Heads In The Sand Let’s Clean The Sand”

one clean island

Mission Statement

One Clean Island is a Key West-based initiative whose purpose is to act as a conduit of factual best practices in regards to protecting our residents and others in responding to the challenges of COVID-19 (Coronavirus).

Who is One Clean Island

One Clean Island is a group of Key West medical professionals, community leaders, media affiliates, business leaders, and government agency partners.

What One Clean Island is NOT

- An Official Government Agency
- A group that engages, has opinions of, and/or promotes business activity.
- An entity that debates tourism (either pro or con)
- A fundraising or business entity.

Goals and Objectives

Provide factual information to the public. This information can include:

- A.) Medical updates (provided by Dr. Norris)
- B.) Best practices as specified by the CDC e.g. cleansing/sanitizing procedures.
- C.) Updates as to available supplies and/or equipment.
- D.) Updates to Government Assistance Programs.
- E.) Opportunities for entities to participate in “One Clean Island Good Practices*”

“One Clean Island Best Practices”

Entities can voluntarily choose and be recognized for participating in “One Clean Island Best Practices”. These practices will follow CDC guidelines. Details (DRAFT):

- A.) Participants will maintain clean and sanitized surfaces (sanitize at minimum every 20 minutes).
- B.) Entities will have employees “self-health check” prior to each work shift. This will include temperature reading and general health observation.
- C.) Entities will self-report weekly.
- D.) Entities may participate in organized community sanitation event(s) e.g. sanitizing sidewalks and frequently-touched public surfaces

Upcoming

- Facebook page. Launching 3/14/20
- Press article(s): Mandy Bolen, Pru Sowers.
- Best Practices outline (posting to the FB page 3/14/20)
- List of entities subscribing to Best Practices 3/18/20
- City of Key West Meeting – Tentative Date: Wednesday March 18th – with Mayor Terri Johnston (not a public meeting). Details TBD

How is information from One Clean Island disseminated?

- Facebook page. One (or two) administrator(s) sworn to follow mission statement.
- Press releases.
- One media spokesperson or coordinator. (TBD)

- E N D -

Jim Gilleran

(305) 304-2400

jamesgilleran@gmail.com

“Let’s not bury our heads in the sand. Let’s clean the sand!”