Hey Jeff,

I completed an RRI for case number 20-4595. Ofc. Waite arrested Brittany Delgado, who was acting disorderly at George Allen Apartments, as usual. She was extremely uncooperative with Officers on scene and was charged accordingly. The following day, she came to KWPD and made a complaint of excessive force to Sgt. Siracuse. This information was relayed to Sgt. Vazquez and I to review, as we are Ofc. Waite's immediate supervisors. In reviewing the BWC footage, as well as Sgt. Vazquez being on scene, there was not only NO force used, but especially no excessive force. I completed the RRI based on check box 4 (When any person complains of injury as a result of the application of force). It should be noted the Delgado was wearing a cast and had clear pre-existing injuries prior to KWPD having to respond based on her behavior. I was unable to print the Original Report or Arrest Affidavit because of technical difficulties. I am sure you have access to these in MCT. All BWC information has been downloaded into Evidence.com. Just wanted to give you a heads up as to why you are getting an RRI after the incident occurred.

Respectfully,

Kouri

NARRATIVE

REPORTING OFFICER NARRATIVE

Key West Police Department

Victim STATE OF FLORIDA	Offense DISORDERLY CONDUCT	OCA 20-004595 Date / Time Reported Tue 11/10/2020 19:35
----------------------------	-------------------------------	--

On November 10, 2020, at approximately 1935 hours, I, Ofc. Waite, was dispatched to the 1200 block of 1st Street in reference to a verbal disturbance. On arrival, I was flagged down by a concerned female and her teenage son. The female told me a woman, identified later as Brittany Delgado, was shouting and banging on a door in the George Allen Apartment Complex. The female told me Delgado was cursing at a male inside of the apartment claiming he owed her money. The female stated Delgado was shouting and cursing into the apartment so loudly that she and her family could hear her from inside of their home. The female told me she had young children inside her home that were subjected to Delgado's foul mouth and belligerent behavior. The female acted as if she was afraid to speak with me as Delgado was still in the area. The female stated Delgado was last seen walking west through the George Allen apartment complex and was wearing a gray shirt.

Ofc. Purcell and I made contact with Delgado as she walked south through the George Allen apartment complex. I called out to Delgado and asked her stop walking. Delgado ignored me and continued walking. I instructed Delgado to stop walking a second time. Delgado turned around to face me and shouted, "What the fuck!?". I explained to Delgado that the Key West Police Department received multiple complaints in reference to her behavior. Delgado stated someone else in the area was involved in a disturbance, not her. Delgado then began shouting that a George Allen resident owed her money and she wanted to report him. I asked Delgado for her identification card at which point she turned away from me and began walking south. I told Delgado to stop and she continued walking south. I advised Delgado that she was not free to leave, grabbed her by her left arm, and instructed her to sit on a nearby curb. Delgado attempted to pull away from me and shouted, "I'm going to sit!". Delgado continued shouting and cursing at me, in the presence of young children playing basketball on a nearby basketball court, stating I had no right to touch her and threatened to sue me.

Because Delgado's behavior had corrupted public morals, outraged the sense of public decency, and affected the peace and quiet of nearby residents, I placed her under arrest for disorderly conduct and resisting without violence. Delgado stated she was currently pregnant and requested that we not place the handcuffs behind her back. Ofc. Purcell and I placed Delgado's handcuffs in the front of her body, and she was transported to the Monroe County Detention Center without incident.

While searching Delgado's belongings, incident to arrest, I located a Trulieve medical marijuana container containing 2.3 grams of medical marijuana and a Trulieve medical marijuana vape pen. Delgado was in possession of an expired medical marijuana card. Delgado stated she recently renewed her medical marijuana card and is expecting a valid card in the mail. Exercising discretion, I did not charge Delgado with marijuana possession and will be checking the registry to verify her status. Delgado was also in possession of personal defense pepper spray, which could not be taken to the jail. The marijuana, vape pen, and pepper spray were placed into property.

My BWC was activated throughout this call and during transport, as my in-car Coban is currently out of service.
