On Friday January 1st, 2021, at about 2220 hours, I, Ofc. (L. Hernandez), was on foot patrol on Duval Street in reference to City of Key West Curfew Emergency Directive 2020-20.

While approaching the intersection of Fleming and Duval Street we came in contact with a family group of three males and four females. The group was on City's sidewalk heading South on Duval Street. The City's Curfew starts at 10pm and continues until 6am. The group was located at about 1020pm.

The City curfew has been in effect since Thursday December 31st, 2020 and it ends on Sunday January 3rd, 2021 at 6am. Curfew's information has been disseminated via social media, newspaper and radio transmissions. We informed the group there was a City curfew and that they needed to go home.

As we were telling the group to go home and guiding them off Duval, they started to walk slowly and turning around to argue against our lawful orders. When the group made it to Fleming near 430 Duval Street (La Concha Hotel). As we were crossing over Duval Street and still on Fleming Street, the group kept walking slowly and challenging our commands by turning around, stopping and yelling "we are walking".

One of the females turned around and aggressively screamed, almost making physical contact with Ofc. K. Waite. Due to her aggressive and active resistance to Ofc. Waite's commands to leave, Ofc. Waite and I started to try to get the female into custody.

As soon as Ofc. Waite and I started to detain the female, a male later identified as, Alan Michael Castillo (DOB 05/18/1994), tried to interfere with our lawful detention by trying to get in between us and the female. I re focused my attention to Alan and ordered him to get down on the ground. I had to grab Alan by his left arm and shoulder, as he hesitated by pulling away from me and I re directed him to the ground.

Once on the ground Alan ended up on his belly and kept both of his arms under his chest. I gave Alan loud commands not to resist and to give me his arms so I could place him in handcuffs. Ofc. S. Ham helped me turn Alan to the side where I was able to get his left arm and Ofc. Ham grabbed his right arm. I placed Alan in handcuffs, and I conducted a search incident to arrest of his person. I then walked Alan to the rear of the transport van.

Alan met the criteria of actively resisting because he made physical evasive movements to defeat our attempts to gain control of him. Under the circumstances and being that the situation was fluid and evolved very quickly, I believe the amount of force used to achieve control of Alan was reasonable and necessary.

When I brought Alan to the transport van I noticed that a female, later identified as Ruth Ruffman (DOB 02/20/1964), resisting arrest by trying to defeat Ofc. K. Waite's attempts of placing her in handcuffs.

Ruth was laying belly down on Duval Street in front of 423 Duval Street when Ofc. Waite was attempting to detain her. I assisted Ofc. Waite in placing Ruth in handcuffs by keeping pressure on her back with my right forearm and then brought both of her arms behind her back so Ofc. Waite could detain her.

My BWC 3452 was not activated during this incident. I do recall tapping it to turn it on but it did not start recording.

On January 1, 2021 at approximately 2230, I, Ofc. S. Ham along with members of mounted patrol, motors, several other officers on foot and vehicles began to patrol Duval St., in reference to City of Key West Curfew Emergency Directive 2020-20.

While approaching the intersection of Fleming and Duval Street we came in contact with a group of males and females. The group was on the sidewalk heading North on Duval Street.

I saw Ofc. K. Waite arguing with the group telling them they needed to go home. I saw Ofc. Waite attempt to detain one of the females and she began pulling away. One of the males, later identified as Alan Michael Castillo, tried to get between Ofc. Waite and the female. Ofc. L. Hernandez and I refocused our attention to A. Castillo in order to gain control of him. Ofc. Hernandez grabbed A. Castillo by his left arm, and I grabbed him by his right arm. A. Castillo attempted to pull away from Ofc. Hernandez and I. Ofc. Hernandez and I redirected A. Castillo to the ground. I assisted Ofc. Hernandez handcuff A. Castillo.

I looked back and saw Ofc. D. Agleev on the ground with another female, later identified as Danielle Shulmann. I approached Ofc. Agleev and assisted him in placing Danielle Shulmann in handcuffs.

After assisting Ofc. Agleev, I saw Sgt. Kouri, Ofc. N. Howell and Ofc. C. Bozzetti attempting to control another male on the ground, later identified as Daniel Shulmann. I saw Daniel Shulmann's legs going in the air as if he was attempting to kick Ofc. Howell. I grabbed Daniel Shulmann's left leg and controlled it to keep him from kicking any officers. I handcuffed Daniel Shulmann and escorted him to the transport van.

While standing by behind the transport van another male, later identified as Jordan Ruffman approached from the East side of Duval St. Ruffman was told the curfew is in affect he must leave and walked towards us. Sgt. Kouri took control of Ruffman and redirected him to Ofc. Agleev. I grabbed Ruffman by his left arm and assisted in redirecting Ruffman to the ground. I assisted in handcuffing Ruffman.

I observed a female, later identified as Kimberly Mc Cormick, yelling from the sidewalk in front of 430 Duval St. I observed Lt. Haley grab Mc Cormick's left arm and Ofc. Purcell grab the right arm. I observed Ofc. Purcell and Lt. Haley redirect Mc Cormick to the ground. I assisted Ofc. Purcell as he placed Mc Cormick in flex cuffs.

After our foot patrol was completed, I followed Sgt. P. Rodriguez to Lower Keys Medical Center with Mc Cormick on board. I waited at the LKMC with Mc Cormick until she was cleared, and I transported her to Monroe County Detention Center without incident.
