Commercial Litigation

Experience: Christopher B. Lunny has achieved the highest ranking from Martindale-Hubbell rating organization (AV) and been named to Florida Trend's Legal Elite list of outstanding Florida lawyers for more than ten consecutive years. Since 2009, Mr. Lunny has also been named to the Florida Super Lawyers list, which is a peer-reviewed list of lawyers representing no more than 5% of Florida lawyers. Mr. Lunny practices labor and employment law, commercial litigation, and administrative law. In his labor and employment practice, Mr. Lunny represents management and has extensive experience assisting clients in the resolution of issues that arise in all phases of the employment relationship. Mr. Lunny also represents public and private sector employers in all forms of employment related litigation, including breach of non-competition agreements, trade secret concerns and the defense of race, age, disability, pregnancy, gender discrimination/sexual harassment and whistleblower claims.

Mr. Lunny has been retained as lead defense counsel in many high profile representations of public and private sector clients. For example, Mr. Lunny represented Florida's Chief Financial Officer, Jeff Atwater, in the case of Weidner, et. al., v. Rick Scott, The Florida Cabinet, et. al., regarding alleged Sunshine Law violations by the Florida Governor and Cabinet. Mr. Lunny also spearheaded the defense of the Florida Department of Children and Families from a claim for $19 million dollars of overtime compensation brought by the USDOL on behalf of 1,100+ current and former employees stemming from alleged "off the clock" uncompensated work.

Finally, Mr. Lunny served as lead counsel in the Agency for Health Care Administration's proceedings to recover Medicaid overpayments to Florida health care providers. The firm successfully represented AHCA in 13 different administrative cases and recovered over $13.4 million dollars for the State of Florida while successfully defending rule challenges and a variety of other defenses raised by the providers.
