Marianne Csigi attended this hearing. Officer Scott Fraser was unable to attend this meeting. Director Young spoke requesting a continuance. Ms. Csigi asked to be heard. She stated that Director Young and City Manager Scholl have done their best to resolve the issues. All that is being discussed is 22+ years in age. She has tried to reconstruct it to the best of her knowledge. This case started with the address not being correct. There were issues with the Code Officer. This was when the issues with the downstairs unit came up. Ms. Csigi had a meeting with several departments in the City including Jim Scholl to work the issue out. This has been going on since November 2018. The Special Magistrate stated that this is about construction of habitable space under the elevated home in a flood zone. Ms. Csigi said the house is above flood plain of what existed back then. The Special Magistrate stated he wanted to know what exists now. Ms. Csigi stated it will not pass now because everything has changed since then. Ms. Csigi gave explanation of her documents that she has. The Special Magistrate stated that Ms. Csigi wants to try the case but the city is asking for a continuance as Scott Fraser is not here as he is the flood plain officer but Ms. Csigi does not want the continuance. Director Young stated that the city sent Ms. Csigi a settlement agreement then Ms. Csigi gave more documentation that Mr. Fraser said was not relevant to the case. The last communication was that Ms. Csigi wanted to sign a settlement agreement admitting to the violation. Director Young stated he would feel more comfortable if Mr. Fraser was here. The Special Magistrate stated he will continue this one last time but it is the last one whether Ms. Csigi or the city request it. This case will be over on November 28, 2018. Ms. Csigi asked for guidance and the Special Magistrate said he cannot give legal advice. The Special Magistrate encouraged Ms. Csigi to speak with the City and try to settle this. If there are issues with the settlement agreement speak with the city and ask it to be brought to court for the Special Magistrate to make the decision whether certain parts stays in or not. The Special Magistrate stated there has been a request from the city to dismiss four violations. The Special Magistrate asked if Ms. Csigi had an objection to this and she stated no. This case will be heard on November 28, 2018.
