I was pulled over. I suffer with anxiety disorder and PTSD of law enforcement. I was asked to do field sobriety tests. I tried but due to having a panic attack, being shaky, nervous, I failed. I explained to the officer that I was having a panic attack. No medical attention was given. I was arrested. My breathalyzer was .0000 twice. I failed my field sobriety test not because I was intoxicated or on drugs but because I was experiencing a panic attack. At the Marathon County Detention Center, my urine sample was collected in a Styrofoam cup. That is not sanitary and could be tampered with. I did not see my sample get labeled. I was wearing a hoodie with strings. I was put in the holding cell with the strings in which I could have used to harm myself or someone else.. .This was a false arrest. The police officers need to listen when someone is having a medical emergency such as a panic attack. It is not possible to pass the tests in these conditions and medical attention should have been administered

RE: 26-001 Complaint

I have reviewed the BWC and reports in reference to this case (see attached).

Upon review of the video, it is clear the arrestee, Reinert, did fail the field sobriety exercises. Based on Reinert's own admission, she did have an alcoholic beverage prior to driving. Although that does not necessarily mean Reinert was under the influence at the time, the smell of alcohol coupled with her failure of the field sobriety exercise, is probable cause for arrest.

In reference to Reinert's complaint of not showing to be under the influence of alcohol during her breath test, this does not automatically negate the probable cause. Officer Williams was within his authority to request a urine sample.

In terms of the collection of the sample itself, obviously the collection of urine is not something that is recorded on BWC. As there was no video for me to review, I cannot speak to the way the urine was initially collected, other than the second sample being collected appropriately based on Officer Williams' report. At this time, it is unclear if her initial sample was in reference to this case or if it was part of a standard medical screening upon being taken into the Monroe County Detention Center (most likely). Either way, Officer Williams' report adds to the confusion around this issue and will be addressed with his supervisors for retraining.

In terms of Reinert's complaint of anxiety and not receiving medical attention, upon review of the video, it is clear that Reinert is not in any obvious state of medical emergency at the time of the field sobriety exercises. It would be unreasonable for a law enforcement officer to assume every possible intoxicated driver failed field sobriety exercises because they were nervous.

Additionally, Reinert was seen by a nurse at MCDC as is every arrestee. In order to be accepted into MCDC, every arrestee goes through a physical to make sure there are no immediate medical issues. Arrestees are often rejected and require further medical clearance from the ER. Reinert was not rejected.

I am unable to speak to Reinert being allowed to wear her hoodie while in MCDC, as the Key West Police Department has no authority over the policies and procedures there.

This response should in no way be considered an indication of a Reinert's guilt or innocence. That is a court issue. Based on this review, I have determined that Officer Williams did not violate any KWPD policy or Florida State statute.

Original Narrative By Jhavon Williams, 04/10/26 03:51

On March 10, 2026, at approximately 0051 hours, I, Ofc. J. Williams, was on routine patrol in the area of Duval Street and Caroline Street when I observed a black Mazda CX-1 fail to come to a complete stop at the stop bar at the intersection of Caroline Street and Whitehead Street.

I conducted a traffic stop on the vehicle and made contact with the driver, later identified as Jennifer Lynn Reinert (DOB: 03/01/1980), who was identified via passport.

Upon my initial contact from the passenger-side approach, I detected a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage emitting from the interior of the vehicle and from the driver's person.

I requested her driver's license, registration, and proof of insurance. Reinert advised that the vehicle was a rental and stated her wallet had been stolen a few days prior, and that she only had her passport in her possession.

It should also be noted that I had prior contact with this same vehicle in reference to a parking violation. During that incident, Ofc. Anderson and I observed an open container of an alcoholic beverage inside the vehicle.

I then re-approached the driver from the driver's side to continue my investigation. Upon contact, I again detected the odor of an alcoholic beverage emitting from her breath.

Based on my observations, I asked Reinert if she would be willing to perform standardized field sobriety exercises to ensure she was not impaired. Reinert agreed.

During the exercises, I observed multiple indicators of impairment, including glossy eyes, lack of smooth pursuit, and clues of impairment during the walk-and-turn and one-leg stand tests.
During the eye examination, I observed a lack of smooth pursuit. As her eyes tracked to the left, they exhibited distinct jerking movements approximately two to three times. Similarly, as her eyes tracked to the right, they again displayed two to three noticeable jerks.

During the walk-and-turn exercise, the subject was unable to follow instructions. She repeatedly failed to maintain her position as directed, including not keeping her hands at her sides and not maintaining heel-to-toe contact along the line, she continued to step off the line and did not comply with the exercise requirements.

During the One-Leg Stand exercise, the subject was unable to successfully complete the task. The subject repeatedly placed her foot on the ground and was unable to maintain balance for the duration of the exercise.

Based on the totality of the circumstances, I developed probable cause to believe Reinert was operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of an alcoholic beverage.

Reinert was placed under arrest for Driving Under the Influence 316.193-1.

Reinert was transported to the Monroe County Detention Center. At the detention center, Ofc. Lashley conducted a 20-minute observation period and administered a breath test (BTO), which resulted in readings of. 00,.

However, it should be noted that after the breath test was conducted, a urine sample was obtained. The nurse subsequently disposed of the first urine sample by flushing it down the toilet.
After the subject provided a breath sample of .00, I requested a second urine sample due to my suspicion that she may have been under the influence of narcotics and/or prescription medication, based on observed signs of impairment. A urine sample was subsequently obtained, properly packaged, and will be submitted to the Florida Department of Law Enforcement (FDLE) for analysis.

I learned that Reinert's driver's license is valid. However, her license carries a restriction prohibiting the operation of a motor vehicle with a blood alcohol level of 0.02 or higher. The records check also indicated that Reinert has five prior OWI convictions.

Prior to transport, Reinert was searched by Ofc. Harris. She was transported without incident.

I verbally explained the citation to Reinert and advised her that signing the citation is not an admission of guilt. Reinert acknowledged and signed the citation 316.193-1. During my investigation, Reinert admitted to having an open container in the vehicle and stated she had consumed one alcoholic beverage while in the downtown area.

There were no Drug Recognition Experts (DREs) available on duty during my shift; therefore, I was unable to request a DRE response during the course of the investigation.

My body-worn camera and in-car camera were activated throughout the duration of this investigation.

Nothing further

Supplemental Narrative By Johnasia Harris, 04/10/26 02:26

On 04/10/2026 at approximately 0052 hours, I, Ofc. J. Harris, responded to the area of Whitehead Street and Eaton Street in reference to a traffic stop.

Upon arrival, I made contact with the driver and observed the standardized field sobriety tasks being conducted. I also ensured scene safety during the exercises.

Following the investigation, I conducted an inventory search of the vehicle and completed a tow slip. I remained on scene until the arrival of Arnold's Towing, at which time the vehicle was released to the tow company.

I then relocated to the jail, where I turned over the arrestee's property to Ofc. J. Williams, the primary officer of the case.

My body-worn camera (BWC) was activated throughout the duration of this investigation. All evidence was uploaded to Axon.com.

Nothing further to report at this time.

Supplemental Narrative By Adam Lashley, 04/10/26 02:40

On Friday 04/10/2026 at approximately 0132 hours, I (Ofc. Lashley) arrived at the Monroe County Detention Center to meet with Ofc. J. Williams regarding his arrestee. Upon arrival, I identified the subject as Jennifer Lynn Reinert.

I (Ofc. Lashley) am a certified Breath Test Operator in the State of Florida and possess a valid, in-date permit to administer such tests. The instrument used was the Intoxilyzer 8000, S/N 80-000867. I began the required twenty (20) minute observation period at 0145 hours. During the observation period, Reinert did not take anything orally, did not regurgitate, and did not touch her mouth. I did not leave the BTO room at any time during the observation period, nor did I turn my back to Reinert

After completing the 20-minute observation, I requested that Reinert submit to a lawful test of her breath, and she agreed. Reinert provided the following samples:

Subject Sample #1: 0.000 Time: 02:11
Subject Sample #2: 0.000 Time: 02:13

I informed Reinert of the results of the breath test. I then turned custody of Reinert back to Ofc. Williams for processing.

Please reference Ofc. Williams report for probable cause. My Axon body-worn camera was active during the 20-minute observation period and while collecting the BTO results.
